

C50 Cant flat control

Continuous control for maximum recovery and yield

The C50 is Söderhamn Eriksson's control station for the continuous measurement of cant height, alignment faults, rotation angle and saw pattern margins – for every cant. The C50 consists of a measuring unit, a computer and user-friendly graphics software. The system also comprises alarm functions so that production faults can be quickly detected and remedied.

